The image is a full-page background for a map. It features a night-time photograph of the Liverpool City Centre. In the foreground, the bronze statue of The Beatles is prominent, showing the four members walking. Behind them, the Royal Liver Building is illuminated with warm lights, its clock faces glowing. To the right, the Port of Liverpool Building is also lit up. The sky is a deep blue. At the bottom, there's a dark blue banner with white and yellow text. A faint, white geometric pattern of overlapping circles is visible in the bottom right corner.
